Mondial du Lion 6-year-olds: A Norwegian surprise

There was a bit of a shake-up in the leaderboard of the FEI-WBFSH World championship for 6-year-old horses this morning during the second part of dressage.

Young Norwegian rider Yasmin Nathalie Sanderson (23) took the lead with her KWPN gelding Inchello DHI with a score of 26.3 points. Germany's Sophie Leube and Sweetwaters Zieten (Trakehner stallion) are very close second in 26.6, with Piggy French (GBR) and Cooley Lancer (WSI) in third on 26.7.

Only 20 points separate the leader from the last placed competitor after dressage. Tomorrow's X-country phase is to be most exciting! France's Camille Lejeune and Dame Decoeur Tardonne (SF), 8th, will be first to go at 10:00.

7-Year-olds

Mondial du Lion - 7-year-olds: Josephine Schnauer and Viktor 107 retain the lead

After Day 2, the leader of the World championship for 7-year-old eventing horses remained unchanged. With a score of 26.7, Germany's Josephine Schnauer and Viktor 107 still head the competition.

However, changes have occurred down the leaderboard. Great-Britain's team World champion Tom McEwen is now in 2nd position with ISH grey gelding Brookfield Benjamin Bounce (27.2 points). Third is Australia's Christopher Burton, team bronze medalist at the Rio Olympics, riding Selle français Coup de Cœur Dudevin in 27.4.

Cross-country phase for the 7-year-olds starts at 1 pm. Italy's Giovanni Ugolotti, 21st after dressage, will be first to go aboard Swirly Temptress (AES).
