

6-Year-olds

Mondial du Lion, 6-year-olds : Kai-Steffen Meier and QC Rock and Roll overnight leaders

Germany's Kai-Steffen Meier is provisional leader in the FEI-WBFSH World breeding championship for 6 year old eventing horses with QC Rock and Roll (Rheinlander) at the end of Dressage Day 1, with a score of 27.1 points.

France's Camille Lejeune and Dame Decœur Tardonne (selle français) are current 2nd with 29.5 points. Australia's Kevin McNab and Scuderia 1918 Humphreys (holsteiner) are sitting in 3rd position with 30.1 points.

Ireland's Brian Morrison and Global ESI Exclusive (ISH) will be first to go tomorrow morning at 9:00 in the 6-year-olds dressage second part.

7-Year-olds

Mondial du Lion - 7-year-olds : Josephine Schnauffer and Viktor 107 surprise leaders

Third to go in the FEI WBFSH World Championship for 7-year-old eventing horses, Germany's Josephine Schnauffer rode a beautiful test on her Westfalian gelding Viktor 107 to score 26.7 into the lead.

The USA's Elisabeth Halliday-Sharp and Cooley Moonshine (ISH) seemed to have a firm hold on 2nd position with a score of 29.3 but dropped to 3rd when Olympic champion Astier Nicolas and Lumberton (ZDFP) rode their best test to date to score 28.5 points.

World #3 Tim Price (NZL) will be first to go tomorrow at 13:00 for the 7-year-olds Dressage Day 2 riding Happy Boy (KWPN).

<https://www.worldsporttiming.com/results/mondial-du-lion-2019-258/schedule.html>

Organisé par

LE LION EQUESTRE

Avec le soutien de

En partenariat avec

Crédit Mutuel

