

Le Mondial du Lion Equine Hall of Fame

Oslo

The talent of Oslo showed from his first international championship by winning the six year old class at the 2008 Mondial du Lion. He then finished in second place at the Mondial 2009.

His natural brilliance was further confirmed when, on his first attempt at five star level, he won at Pau, France, as a nine year old.

It seems that he performed at his best in the land of his birth !

After retirement from top level competition in 2017, always with British rider William Fox-Pitt, Oslo was then ridden by William's god daughter and enjoyed novice events until he began full retirement at the end of 2019.

Before being gelded at the age of five semen was collected and at least one of his offspring, Oratario, also competed in five star level competition.

Oslo passed away in 2022.
