

Le Mondial du Lion Equine Hall of Fame

Paulank Brockagh

An Irish bred mare, Paulank Brockagh had a top ten finish at the Mondial du Lion 2010 when seven years old.

Aged eleven she won the world famous five star event at Badminton.

She was certainly no stranger to championships, competing at the 2012 Olympics in London, the 2014 World Equestrian Games in Normandy and the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro where she finished in individual 4th place.

Throughout her career Paulank Brockagh was ridden by the Australian Sam Griffiths who claimed that he « had never ridden a horse that would try so hard. »

She retired in 2020 and was welcomed home by her breeder Paula Cullen in Ireland.
