

THE MONDIAL DU LION UNVEILS THE OFFICIAL POSTER FOR ITS 2025 EDITION!

A must-attend event marking the 40th anniversary of the FEI World Breeding Eventing Championships for Young Horses

The Mondial du Lion, an internationally renowned equestrian competition, is set to celebrate an exceptional anniversary edition in 2025. From October 16 to 19, the Parc Départemental de l'Isle Briand in Le Lion d'Angers will once again welcome the world's best 6- and 7-year-old eventing horses for the FEI World Breeding Eventing Championships for Young Horses.

With just a few months to go, the official poster has been revealed, capturing the passion, precision, and emotion that make the Mondial du Lion a flagship event on the international equestrian calendar.

A VIBRANT VISUAL FOR A HISTORIC EDITION

This anniversary poster powerfully showcases the three hallmark disciplines of eventing: dressage, cross-country, and show jumping. Each year, the Mondial du Lion draws more than 45,000 spectators—a loyal audience made up of equestrian enthusiasts, families, and fans of top-level sport—and over a hundred international riders.

AN EXCEPTIONAL SETTING FOR A SPECTACULAR COMPETITION

The Parc Départemental de l'Isle Briand, a stunning 180-hectare natural setting, has become a benchmark venue for major equestrian events. With its spectacular cross-country course, high-quality infrastructure, and warm atmosphere, it provides the perfect stage to celebrate this 40th edition in style.

AN EVENT NOT TO BE MISSED

To mark this special anniversary, the 2025 edition will feature exclusive new entertainment, an expanded exhibitor village, and a unique program celebrating four decades of top-level sport and equestrian excellence.
