

2026 Ticketing: A Large-Scale Experience

The announcement thousands of enthusiasts have been waiting for: official ticketing is now open. To allow as many people as possible to attend, various packages are available across the 3.5 days of competition.

The general public can now book seats for the event's highlights:

- Dressage (Thursday and Friday)
- Cross-Country (Saturday), the event's iconic centerpiece
- Show Jumping (Sunday)

Special Offer: Currently, the general public can take advantage of a preferential rate on Saturday "Cross-Country" tickets until April 30, 2026 (€24 instead of €26). As grandstand seating and premium offers are limited, early booking is highly recommended.

New for 2026: Enhanced Premium Experiences

To experience the Mondial from a different perspective, this year's event offers redesigned premium experiences with two formats centered around the cross-country course:

- Premium Novice: An educational discovery of the course.
- Premium Expert: A technical immersion including an analysis of course-design choices.

These exclusive, small-group formats allow guests to understand and experience the competition as close to the action as possible.

An Exhibitors' Village at the Heart of Economic Growth

The Mondial du Lion Crédit Mutuel is also a major economic hub, featuring a village with over 100 exhibitors. Brands, artisans, and producers wishing to exhibit at the 2026 edition can now submit their registration applications.

With over 45,000 visitors expected, the village serves as a premier showcase for brands and local stakeholders. Divided into four sectors—equestrian equipment, fashion & accessories, tourism, and catering—it offers:

- Direct visibility to the general public.
- Commercial and networking opportunities.
- A strong presence within the local ecosystem.

Good to know: The first 40 exhibitors to sign up will benefit from a 10% discount.
